RESOLUTION.

Read—

Home Department letter No. 1121—1135, dated the 6th July 1905, and the replies of local Governments thereto.

Review of present situation.

More than five years have now passed since the Governor General in Council, when reviewing the report of the Indian Plague Commission, examined in the light of the knowledge then available the various measures which had been proposed or adopted with the object of checking the diffusion of the disease and indicated the considerations of policy which must govern their introduction in India. During this period, while the efforts of Government officers have in no way relaxed, and the people themselves have in many places shown a disposition to acquiesce and even to co-operate
